MEET ALICIA

Writing has always been my passion, but recently it has become a way to connect with faith-based writers and bring God-given stories to life!

As a former educator and reading specialist, I have always held a special place in my heart for literacy and words. I have a B.A. degree in interdisciplinary studies and an M.A. in Advanced Literacy. I currently write for many faith-based blogs, including iBelieve, Crosswalk, and Christianity. I have written devotionals, a children's book on grief, and several Bible studies for women.

As a teacher that has turned into a faith-based writer, I have spent over 20 years imperfectly perfecting the art of coaching, writing, and creating work that will embrace both hope and honesty.

✦ WRITING SERVICES ✦

CONTENT BASED ARTICLES, STUDIES, POSTS, ETC.

Whether you need a Bible study on marriage, parenting, faith, self-help or an article to inspire your team, it would be a honor to work with you. Allow me to do the research and create a literary work that you can share and showcase your mission, ministry, ideas, or products to your congregation, clients, social media platform, blog, fellowship groups and more.

EDITORIALS & PROOFREADING

Editorials and proofreading consist of a consultation call to gain more clarity of your project along with sending proofs and/or manuscripts via pdf or word document. I work with an incredible faithful sister that will come alongside you on this journey to bring your best work forward!

CREATIVE CONTENT

As a former public school teacher, I have written curriculum for teachers, greeting cards for staff and parents, and digital products for families. I also enjoy writing prayers, devotionals, and other inspirational pieces. In other words, I would love to create something to meet your needs!

Looking for graphic design or a book cover? I have a faithful sister that can help with that too!

Let love and faithfulness never leave you; bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart. Proverbs 3:3

Let's Get Started...

You first!

In order to gain a better understanding of your writing needs and goals, I want to hear it all from you!

We will start with a brief conversation, either by phone, email, or in person depending on your location, and discuss your writing goals and needs for your upcoming project. At that time we will also discuss timelines, format, rates, and other specific details.
